

Patrick Mounts

503.679.8657 | patrickmnts@gmail.com

Github: www.github.com/patrickmnts

Portfolio: www.patrickmnts.com

Professional Summary

- Motivated and ambitious junior web-developer excited by the challenge of transitioning to a full time career in web development.
- Bright, loyal, and excited to rapidly continue learning.

Technical Experience

Web Development: HTML5, CSS3, Javascript, jQuery, Bootstrap & Responsive Designs, Git/Github, Ruby, Chrome Dev. Tools.

Programming Skills: Agile Methods, TDD, Paired Programming, Pull Requests, API's, JSON & XML, OOP.

Frameworks: Rails, Sinatra, *currently focusing on Drupal.

Professional Experience

Portland Code School – Portland, OR

06/2013 - 08/2013

Student

- Work within groups to pitch web-based project ideas.
- Manage progression of FreeFlow a site for Boaters & Fisherman utilizing agile methodology, daily stand-ups and regular planning meetings. Retrieving data for MySQL database through use of USGS water API.
- Restructure of a pre-existing e-commerce site from WordPress to Rails. Utilizing Stripe API for payment processing and scheduling.
- Working on complete rebuild for local non-profit Neighborhood House using Drupal.

Wilderness Aware Rafting – Buena Vista, CO

Summers 2011 - 2012

White Water Guide

- Coach and instruct teams of guests to rapidly learn new skills to successfully navigate class III – IV white water.
- Organize logistics as trip leader consistently responsible for full day trips of up to 5 guides and 40+ clients.

Crag Law Center – Portland, OR

12/2011 - 06/2011

Paralegal Intern/Volunteer

- Research and prepare written summaries of federal and state laws, regulations and court cases as they relate to specific northwest environmental issues pending trial.
- Plan, organize and execute 2012 Wild and Scenic Film Festival as development tool. Contacting over 100 new supporters and raising over $2500 as the most successful to date.

Oregon Bus Project – Portland, OR

10/2011 - 06/2011

Development Intern/Volunteer

- Build and nurture relationships with local businesses through cold-call & personal contacts. Garnished over $1000 worth of product to provide as incentives and prizes to volunteers.
- Organize and recruit teams of high school students through direct classroom workshops; pioneering a program to increase youth voter turnout statewide by over 4000.

Education

Portland Code School – Portland, OR

06/13 - 08/13

Web Development Program

- Learning best practices for professional web-development skills & methodologies.

University of Oregon – Eugene, OR

2006 - 2010

B.S. in Political Science, Minors in Business & Economics